

PENNSYLVANIA EASTERN CHAPTER OF THE FBINAA

2026 Annual Training Conference

May 17-19, 2026

Hershey Lodge, Hershey PA

www.fbinaaeasternpa.org

On behalf of the Executive Board of the FBI National Academy Associates, Eastern PA Chapter, I am honored to invite you to attend the 2026 Chapter Conference from May 17th – 19th, 2026 at the Hershey Lodge, Hershey PA.

This year's program features nationally acclaimed instructors delivering thought-provoking and practical training designed to enhance professional performance and leadership. In addition, attendees will enjoy networking and collaboration opportunities with colleagues and presenters.

This will be also the first year hosting the conference in Hershey. Located in the heart of “The Sweetest Place on Earth,” the Hershey Lodge offers warm hospitality, comfortable accommodations, and outstanding amenities, including several on-site restaurants and bars, a relaxing spa, and the popular Hershey's Water Works. The charming town of Hershey is rich with history and attractions such as Hersheypark, Hershey's Chocolate World, and Hershey Gardens—all just minutes away. It's the perfect place to unwind, network, and enjoy a truly memorable conference experience.

We look forward to welcoming you to Hershey for this exceptional training and professional development experience.

CONFERENCE SPEAKERS

Imran Ali

Imran Ali is a nationally recognized trial attorney and law enforcement trainer with extensive experience in high liability incidents. He was lead prosecutor in the Kim Potter case and made national headlines after resigning over concerns about prosecutorial independence. In this unfiltered and powerful session, Ali examines the events surrounding the death of George Floyd and other critical incidents that have reshaped use-of-force policy and courtroom expectations. Using real body-worn camera footage, he explores key topics such as de-escalation, duty to intercede, and medical aid obligations.

George Piro

SAC George Piro, Retired FBI-Miami Field Office George began his career in the U.S. Air Force before joining law enforcement in 1989 and becoming a criminal investigator in 1997. He joined the FBI as a Special Agent in 1999 and, within four years, was selected for the elite Counterterrorism Rapid Deployment Team. In 2004, he led FBI interrogation efforts of Saddam Hussein—the first time the Bureau interrogated a head of state in their own country.

George went on to serve as supervisor of the Washington D.C. Joint Terrorism Task Force, Assistant Special Agent in Charge of the International Terrorism Branch, Deputy Assistant Director of the Weapons of Mass Destruction Directorate, and Director of the High-Value Detainee Interrogation Group.

In 2014, he became the Special Agent in Charge of the FBI's Miami Field Office, overseeing more than 900 personnel and managing counterterrorism, criminal, cyber, and counterintelligence programs across the U.S., Central and South America, and the Caribbean.
